If Yes: When _____ were you successful? _____

10. Include a cover letter with your explanation as to how the financial support will assist you and why you would like to attend the AGM.

I understand that I must be a regular member in good standing of the BCCE. If my application is successful but extenuating circumstances prevent me from attending, I will notify BCCE as soon as possible so the bursary can be awarded elsewhere. The award is non-transferable.

I will endeavor to represent both my Chamber of Commerce and the British Columbia Chamber Executives in a professional manner at all times as a bursary recipient. I will attend all functions of the conference.

I understand that as a bursary recipient I may be required to assist the Executive committee with the conference at the registration desk and agree to do so. I also agree to write a short article on my experience at the conference for the BCCE newsletter.

Bursaries will be announced during the BCCE AGM to be held in Invermere, September 10 – 12, 2017.
